

Dear Friends,

We have the pleasure of inviting you to the 22st Mediterranean Healthy Nutrition, Medicinal Plants and Green Entrepreneurship Fair, which will be organized this year once again by Mediteranski sajam Dubrovnik j.d.o.o. in association with the City of Dubrovnik, the Dubrovnik Tourist Board, Dubrovnik-Neretva County, the Croatian Chamber of Commerce, Dubrovnik County Chamber and the Regional Development Agency Dunea d.o.o. The venue of the Fair is the Hotel Rixos Premium Dubrovnik 5, in the heart of the historic city of Dubrovnik, from 12 – 16 March 2024.

With its clear vision of promoting new products and raising the quality of ecologically and traditionally grown products, Mediteranski sajam d.o.o. has been active for more than 20 years in bringing together producers, experts and enthusiasts, with the goal of promoting ecological and traditional products as well as those from green entrepreneurship. This effort also gives a boost to the promotion of sustainable development, healthy lifestyles and the positioning of Croatia in this niche.

Before the Covid-19 pandemic, we would typically have more than 200 exhibitors from all over Croatia and neighbouring Mediterranean countries and achieved high visibility.

Our regular surveys still reveal the satisfaction of small producers of ecologically and traditionally grown products with our Fair, which they clearly see as an opportunity to promote and sell their products.

This specialized event has succeeded in profiling itself as the most important Fair in both Dubrovnik-Neretva County and Croatia in the domain of ecological agriculture and ecological entrepreneurship. This is attested by the fact that the initiative of April 2005 to declare Dubrovnik-Neretva County a GMO-free zone (which was later adopted) was launched at our Fair.

Our longstanding partners are the Government of the Republic of Croatia, the Croatian Parliament, the Croatian Chamber of Commerce and the Croatian Agricultural Chamber. This proves that the Fair has been recognized as an event of national relevance.

Every year we give awards for the best presentation of products, the best product and the best contribution to the promotion of eco-farms in Croatia.

We organize conferences, lectures, top-class gastronomic events and accompanying cultural and entertainment programmes.

The Mediterranean Fair was started 35 years ago as the first of its kind in Croatia, with a vision to become a socially responsible event yielding manifold benefits to lifestyle, health, economy and culture.

Although the costs of organizing the event in this venue and the city of Dubrovnik are high, we nevertheless offer very favourable conditions to exhibitors.

The Fair is by definition a promotional and sales event, and as such traditionally attracts numerous visitors, for whom there is no entrance fee.

Interest in participation at the Fair is high. We therefore urge you to fill and validate the attached application forms, and send them to our e-mail address as soon as possible, so that we may book your exhibition space. Web: www.mediteranski-sajam.com
